

Call Stack

- Keeps track of all the operations in line to be executed.
- Whenever a function is finished, it is popped from the stack.

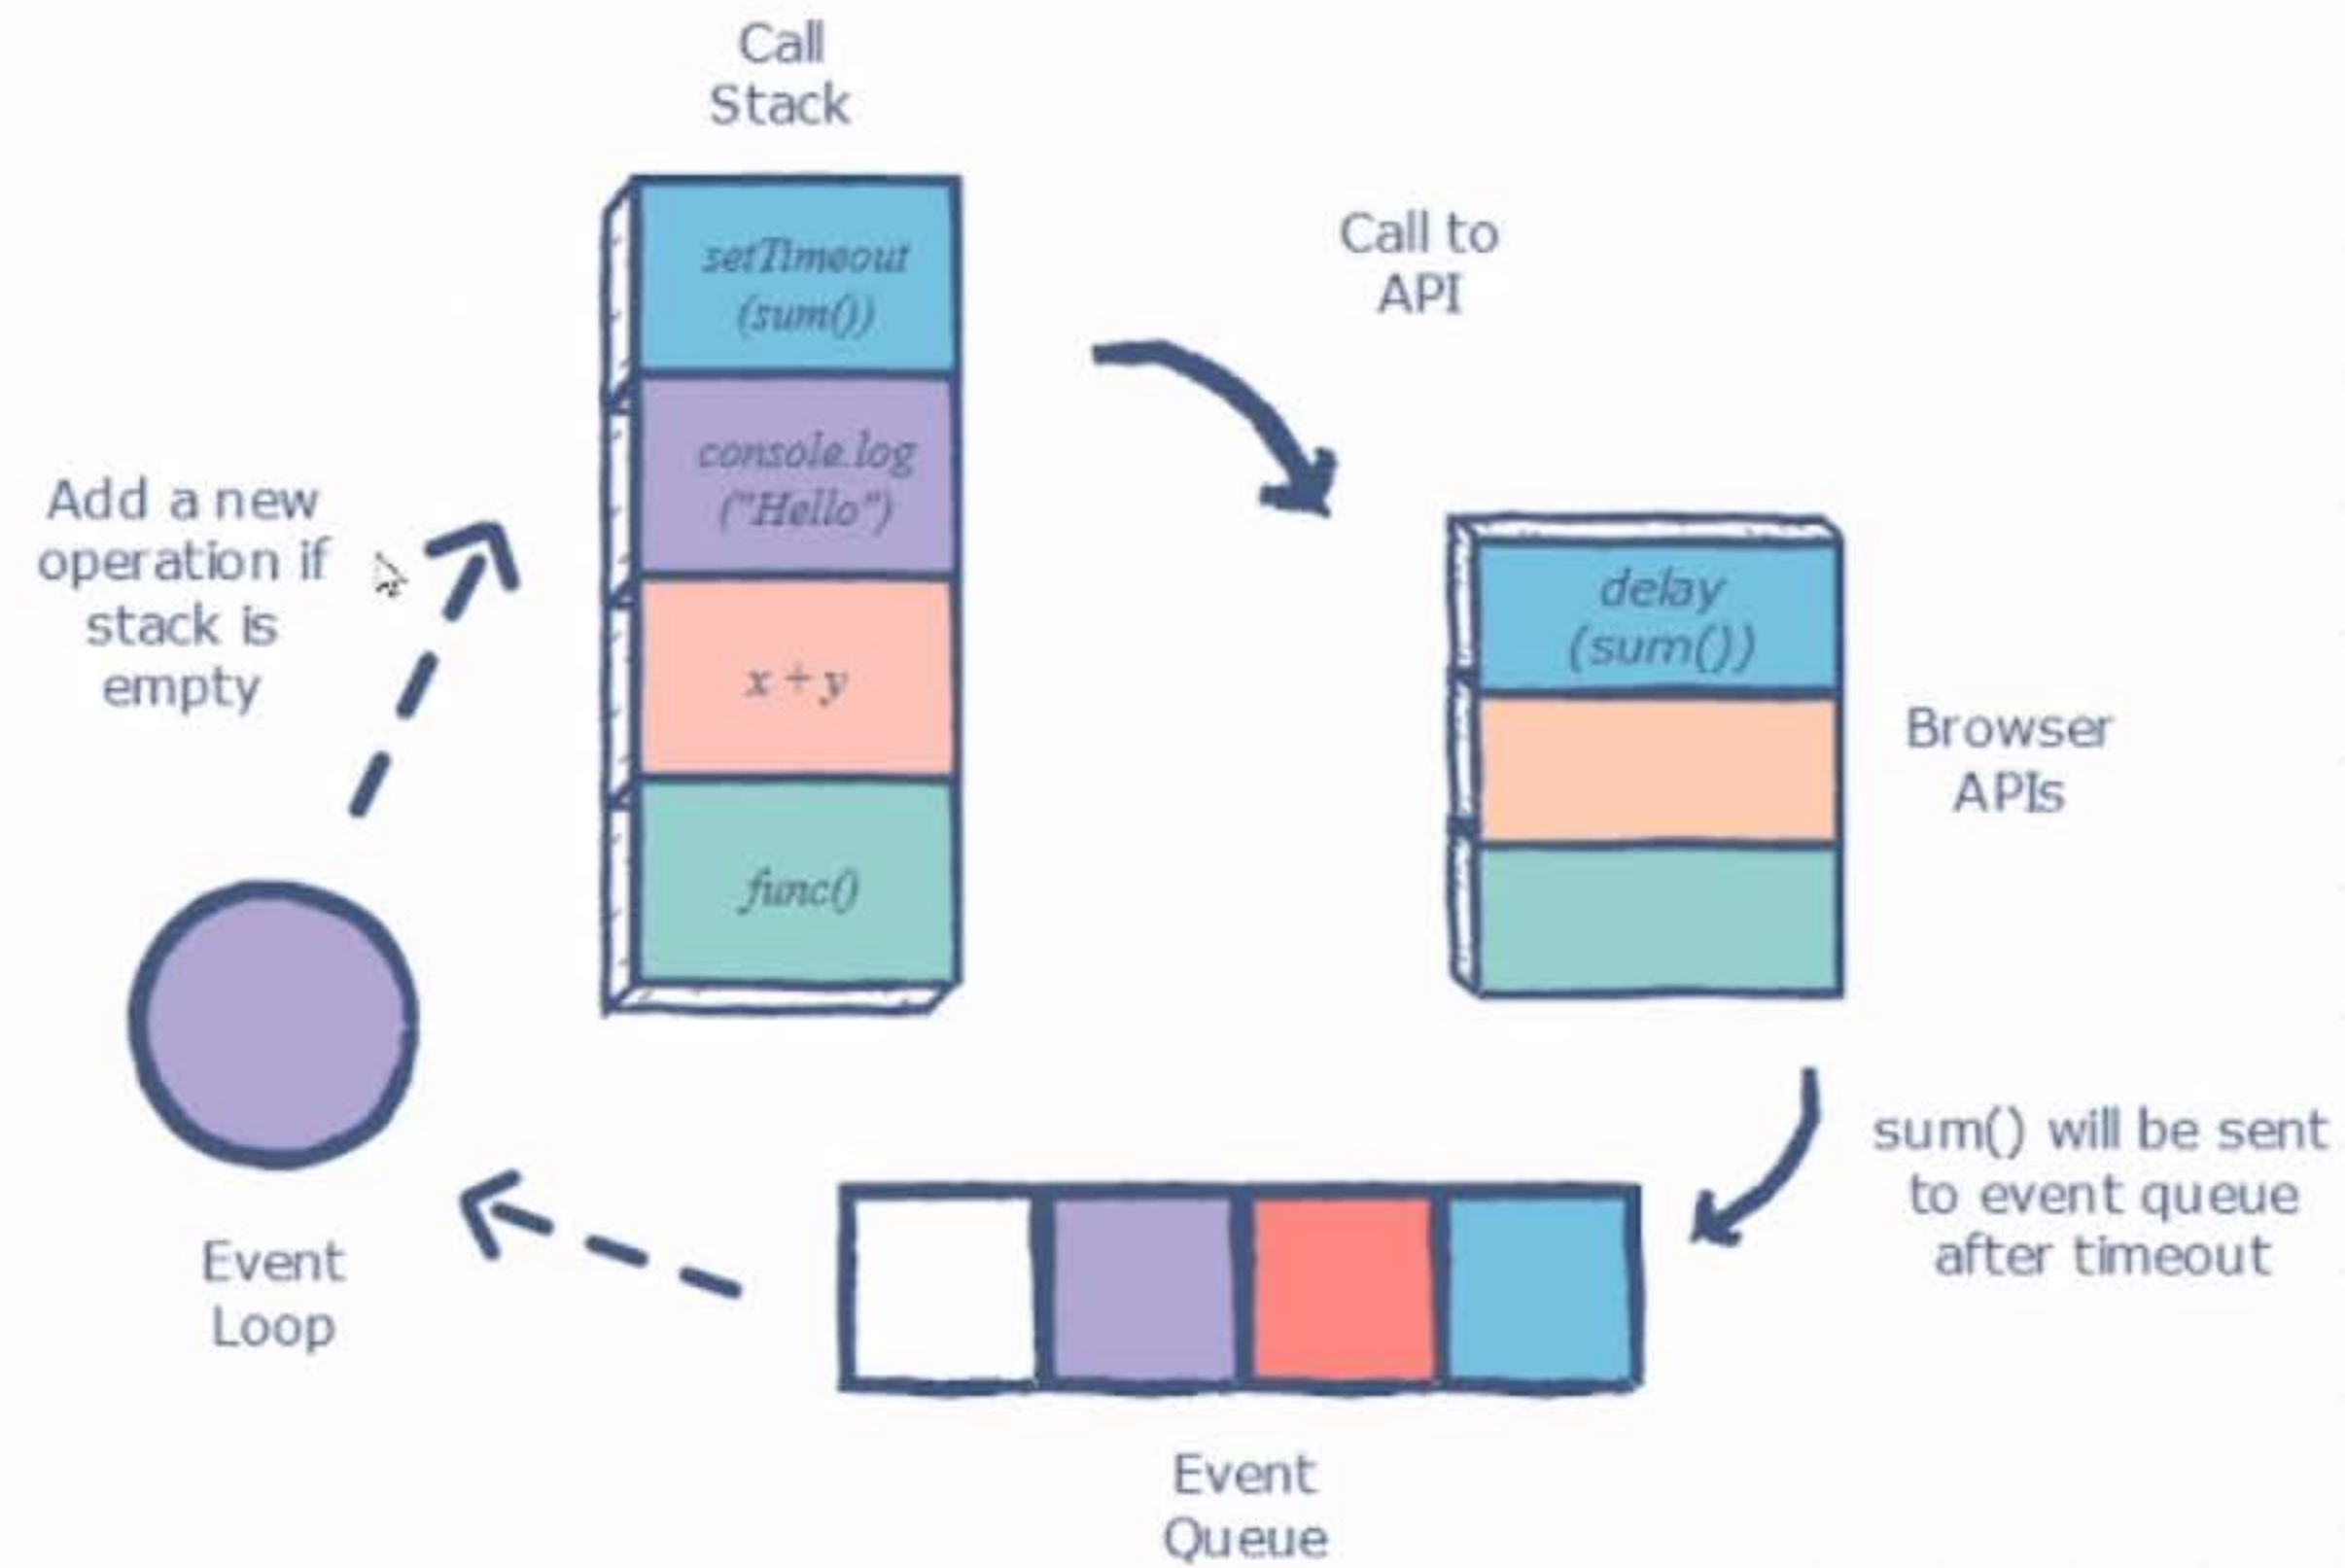

Event Queue

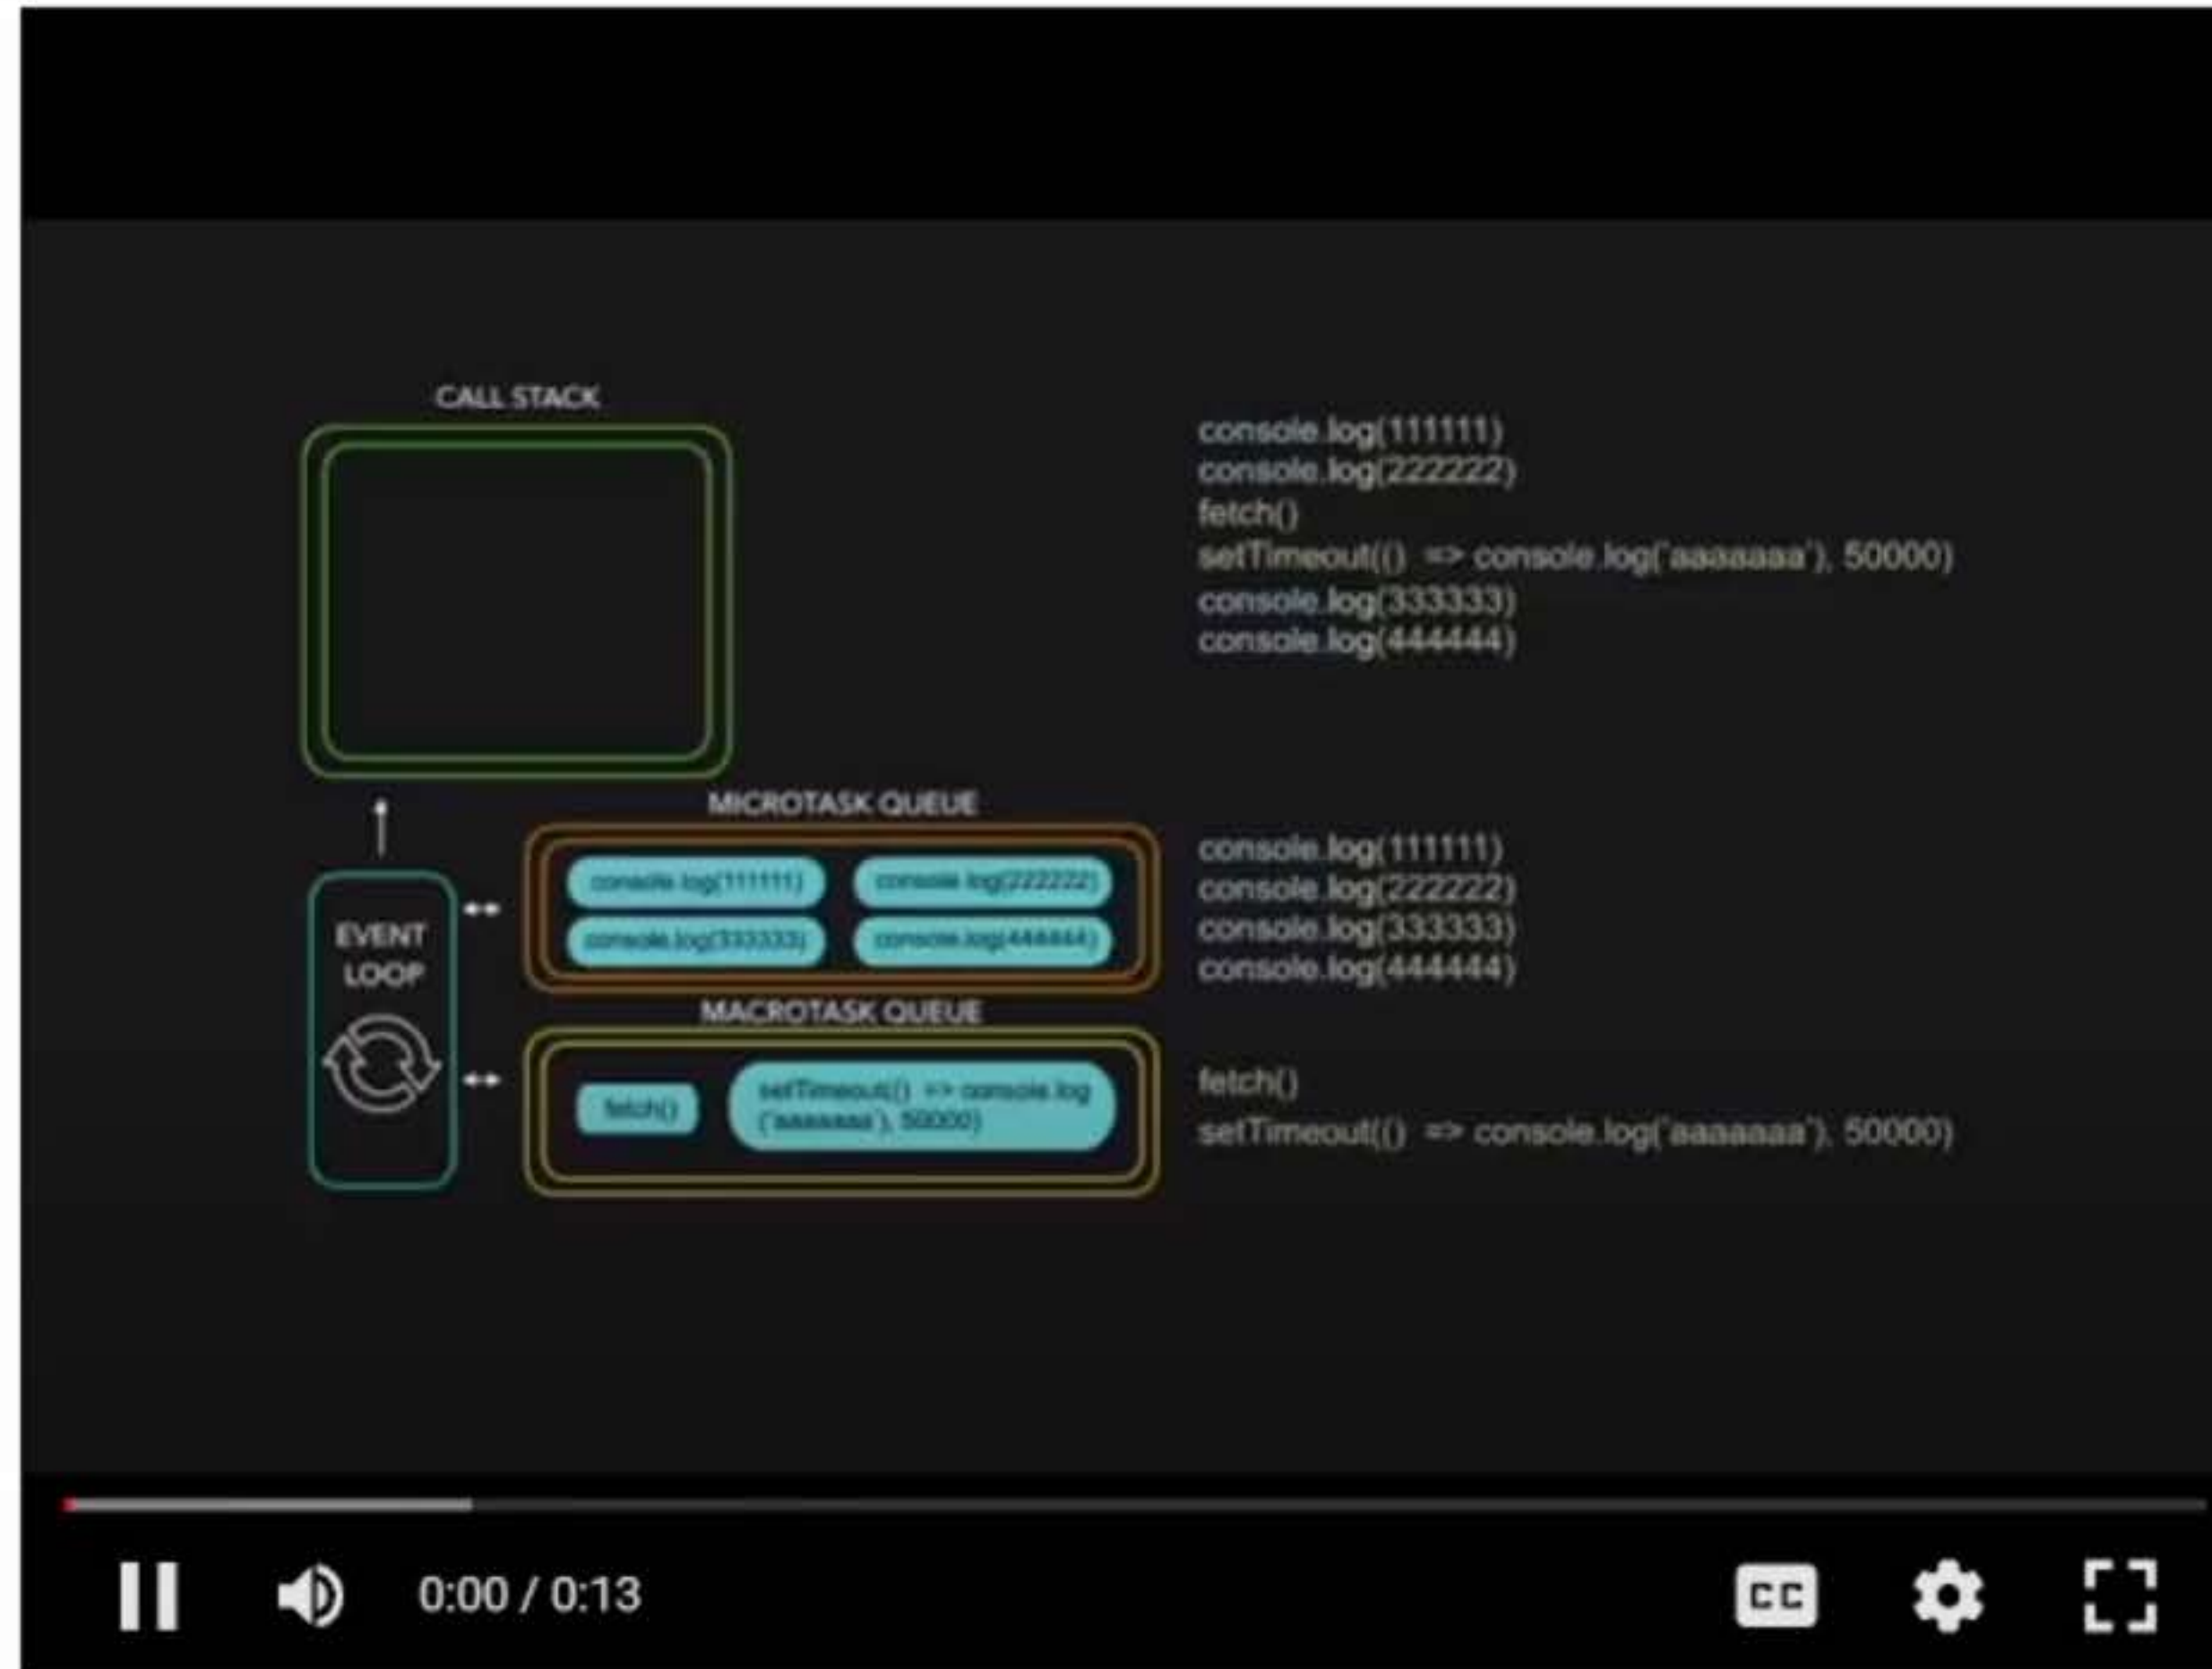

- Sends new functions to the stack for processing.
- Follows the queue data structure.
- Maintains the correct sequence in which all operations should be sent for execution.

Event Loop Execution

Event Loop Execution

0:00 / 0:13

10

